Montauk Ocean Swim Challenge Set for Saturday, July 27, 2024

NEW LOCATION: Kirk Park Beach, Montauk, NY

(MONTAUK, NY, May 13, 2024) — The Montauk Playhouse Community Center Foundation (MPCCF) in partnership with East Hampton Volunteer Ocean Rescue, invites the community to “Get Wet for a Good Cause” at the 16th Annual Montauk Ocean Swim Challenge on Saturday, July 27, 2024. Offering a rare opportunity to swim an open water ocean race on the East End, the Montauk Ocean Swim Challenge features three distance categories for swimmers of all ages and abilities. Beginners can sign up for a half-mile swim, more experienced swimmers can register for the one-mile swim, and the adventurous can tackle the two-mile swim.

New Location for 2024: This year’s race will take place at Kirk Park Beach in Montauk, located at 95 South Emerson Avenue (between the Hero Beach hotel and the IGA).

Online Registration: Participants may register in advance on EliteFeats.com (same-day registration will also be available at EliteFeats.com).

More Info:

- Registration fee is $65* (includes swim cap, commemorative T-shirt, and finish line photo).
*Price increases to $75 on July 1. Swimmers 17 and under are $50.
- Swimmers should arrive by 6am at the Kirk Park Beach parking lot (races begin at 6:30am, end by 9am).
- Event will be held rain or shine.

Beneficiary: 100% of proceeds benefit the Montauk Playhouse Community Center Foundation’s future Aquatic and Community Arts Centers.

Sponsorship opportunities are available: call (631) 668-1124 or e-mail admin@montaukplayhouse.org.
